

CONTENTS

ORIGINAL PAPERS

Physics.— A direct-reading device for use in computing characteristics of vacuum tungsten lamps. J.F. SKOGLAND	453
Physics.— The effective resistance and inductance of iron and bimetallic wires. JOHN M. MILLER	455
Physics.— The calculation of the maximum force between two parallel, coaxial, circular currents. FREDERICK W. GROVER	456
Physics.— On the construction of primary mercurial resistance standards. F.A. WOLFF, M.P. SHOEMAKER and C.A. BRIGGS	458
Physical Chemistry.— An investigation of fusible tin boiler plugs. G.K. BURGESS and P.D. MERICA
Geology.— Nepheline basalt in the Fort Hall Indian Reservation, Idaho. GEORGE R. MANSFIELD and ESPER S. LARSEN	463
Botany.— Some new caesalpiaceous trees of Panama. HENRY PITTIER	468

REVERENCES

Physics	475
Entomology	479

PROCEEDINGS

The Chemical Society	481
The Geological Society	484
The Anthropological Society	493